

To: Alabama Public Service Commission
From: Wanda Shelby re: Reply Docket 33709

It is my belief that Alabama Power should be held responsible, not customers for any electrical uses with Data Centers, rather than customers. The Public Service Commission ought to be fully informed about all aspects of the Data Center and its relationship with Alabama. This obligation should be implemented without delay.